As a community of women created in the image of God, called to discipleship in Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to grow in faith, affirm our gifts, support one another in our callings, engage in ministry and action, and promote healing and wholeness in the church, the society, and the world.

Greater Milwaukee Synodcial Women’s Organization

Annual Convention … Saturday, October 14, 2017

Ascension Lutheran Church
1236 South Layton Blvd
Milwaukee, WI 53216

Registration begins at 7:30 AM with Opening Worship at 8:30 AM.

Early-bird registration fee is only $50 if you register by Monday, August 21st … after that date the fee will be $60. A registration form is on page 3 of this Gleanings … please make copies and share with women in your congregation.

We are excited to welcome Churchwide Representative, Anissa Canova who comes to us from Pennsylvania … her bio is on page 2.

Those women serving as “voting members” will be electing new Board Members as well as transacting business for our Women of the Church organization. Each congregation is encouraged to send one-voting member.

Our keynote speaker will be Deanne Lawson who is the Founder and Executive Director of the Inner Beauty Center (works with women who have been involved with human trafficking). This center is located in Ascension’s South Wing.
MEET OUR CHURCHWIDE REPRESENTATIVE … ANISSA CANOVA

Anissa Canova was elected to the Churchwide board in 2015 upon the resignation of another member.

She previously served on the board of the Northeast Pennsylvania Synodical Women’s Organization. She has been a voting member at both the Synod and Churchwide Assemblies. Anissa is also a member of the anti-racism educators’ network of Women of the ELCA, Today’s Dream Tomorrow’s Reality (TDTR).

A member of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church in Gouldsboro, Pa. Anissa currently serves as congregational president. She is an active participant in Grace’s Women of the ELCA congregational unit, having served as president and as secretary. She is extremely active in her congregation, having served in roles ranging from VBS director to organizing Christian rock concert fundraisers to serving as a lay pastor. Previously she has served as the congregation’s secretary and as chair of the Youth committee and the Family Life committee. Anissa is a substitute Sunday school teacher and a Eucharistic Minister. Her most recent projects are a community garden and a food pantry.

Anissa is an income maintenance caseworker for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Anissa and her husband Robert have one son, two dogs and a cat.

Anissa accepted nomination for the churchwide executive board because she wants people to know God and know that God is with us through our ministry and our actions. She dreams of starting a junior WELCA to help girls grow in faith and love for God and the communities of the world.

Workshop Opportunities

• Face-to-Face with our new Bishop Paul Erickson. This will give you the opportunity to become acquainted with our new Bishop and hear his dreams and plan of action for the Greater Milwaukee Synod.

• Aimee Obregon, Ph.D. … a Captain of Police for the Milwaukee Police Department Sensitive Crimes Division will provide statistical information. It is possible she may be able to bring one or two women to share their stories with us.

• Pauline Beck … Executive Director of HOPE Network for Single Mothers. HOPE Network sponsors a clothing ministry for women and small children during the time Ascension has its Food Ministry days (first & third Thursday of each month). This is the organization that we’ll bring IN-KIND-GIFTS for. A list of items will be published in the September Gleanings.

• Shopping Opportunity … from vendor “Tseem Tseem Hmong.”

SWO EXECUTIVE BOARD

At this year’s convention we’ll be electing a President, a treasurer (both 2-year terms) and a secretary for a 1-year term. In addition, there will be four (4) Board positions to fill, each for a 2-year term.

Two of those Board positions are now being filled by Gayle Cameron and Vivian Johnson. Both of these ladies are completing three two-year terms are not eligible for re-election. We thank them for dedicated years of service.

Marilyn Day and Caitlin Vang are both completing their first two-year term and they are eligible to be re-elected.

Women of the ELCA is for women of all ages and the organization does such good work. Women reap many benefits from serving. Is God calling you to take a step in a new direction? Please pray about this challenge and be ready to step up and say, “Here I am Lord, use me”.

Please see Nomination Form on page 8

WHAT DO YOU WANT YOUR SWO DO?

Bold women within the Greater Milwaukee Synodical Women’s Organization, do you have a burning desire to see growth or is there a specific challenge you would like to see the SWO tackle?

This can happened with the use of a RESOLUTION which is nothing more than a motion submitted to the voters at our Annual SWO Convention (Saturday, October 14, 2017) in writing.

There are two parts to a resolution. The first part is known as the preamble and begins with “Whereas”. This should provide the reasons for the resolution with some background information. The second part of the resolution begins with “Be it Resolved” and the words following should state how this motion can be accomplished.

A brief, well-written resolution is more effective than a long wordy one. If you need help please contact Jarlene Kriehn by e-mail … jkriehn2007@att.net or call her at 262-948-0836.

We will walk with each other:

When I was growing up in Holmen WI, I attended Holmen Lutheran Church. I looked forward to going to church because that’s where it was all happening. Wednesdays, you went to Confirmation; Sundays were the best. After the sermon, you were excused to attend Sunday School. Sunday school was hanging out with friends and learning about Christ. Sunday night was Luther League, we had a room that was ours. We painted the room in cool and hip pictures, we had a foosball table, couches and pizza. Luther League was spent planning our mission projects and activities, or planning and heading to the National Convention, organizing our fundraisers. We were great at making pizzas and selling them, car washes, making and selling yule logs and hay rides. We had a singing group called God’s Squad.

One of our leaders during Luther League was a very special woman that led with a fantastic, genuine laugh and smile that crinkled her eyes that made you smile! She had patience and grace and shared with us every week that her faith could move mountains and yours would too! Janet Zibrowski passed away last month. “Ma” Zib to all her “kids”. Ma had 6 kids of her own but her heart was so big she made each of us feel like we were part of her family. Ma Zib was a large influence in my faith life. I always wondered how she could be so busy but always find time to sit and listen as we rambled on about all the problems we had in high school. I have seen her a few times in the last 40 years. My mother still lives in my hometown and used to tell me Ma Zib says, “hi.” I did get the chance to let her know how she guided my faith. She would say, “You need to build a foundation”. Thank you, Ma. She had wings on earth; it must have been easy to fly to heaven.

I would like you to think back and remember if you had a leader that guided your faith like Ma Zib guided mine. Take time to thank that person or say a prayer for them and lift them up.

Please keep your Board in your prayers as we continue to look for new members to serve. If you are interested, please call me at 414-422-1837. I have not been able to find a nominations chair to serve. Now is the time to get involved as we move forward.

Please keep our Triennial Voting members in your Prayers as we head to the Triennial Convention July 10-13th. Your voting members that will be representing Greater Milwaukee are: Donna Yourell, Vivian Johnson, Sue Seidemann and Pastor Marilyn Miller.

Peace, Grace and Love,

Donna Yourell

TRIENNIAL CONVENTION OFFERINGS

Convention offerings are a way to express our joyful hope and confidence in what God has in mind for us. Your generous offering will be divided equally between the ongoing ministries of our churchwide organization and the PV for Phebe project that is bringing dependable solar power to Phebe Hospital in Liberia. The PV for Phebe project was begun by the Northeastern Minnesota Synodical Women’s Organization and was lifted up as a churchwide movement by the Ninth Triennial Convention. Your convention offering will make a real difference in people’s lives.

Will you and the women of your Congregational Unit prayerfully consider making a generous offering to this project? Make out your Unit’s check to Women of the ELCA, and send it to: WELCA ... c/o ELCA Gift Processing Center … PO Box 1809 … Merrifield VA 22116-8009. Include Form B with the gift.

THANKOFFERING

Thankoffering ingatherings usually happen once a year, in the fall … so why do we bring the subject up in June? The primary purpose of a thankoffering is to encourage us to be grateful on a daily basis.

Do you have a visible container which holds your thankoffering? If not, you are encouraged to find something that holds “thankofferings” all year until it’s time for the ingathering.

When we do this daily it’s a true gift of thanks and not just sticking a 5 or 10 dollar bill into an envelope when you arrive at church and realize that it’s Thankoffering Sunday.

Our many opportunities to make a thankoffering could include a note from a friend; a smile from a stranger; a chance to help a neighbor; the privilege of worshiping with others and so many other things that we should be grateful for.

You are encouraged to begin this very day and see how often you’re reminded of all that we have to be thankful for.

In February I made my 3rd trip to the Diocese of Meru. The idea that it “takes 3 cups of tea” to accomplish something occurred to me and I do feel this trip allowed me to really get to know our partners and spend time with them. I was greeted at the airport by Elibariki and his wife Jackie. I had dinner at his home and met 2 of his children. I also had dinner with Pastor Pallangyo’s family. Pastor Pallangyo drove me around the area, visited the two sub-parishes, worshiped at Mbaaseny, handed out school bags at the Canaan kindergarten, made a home visit to provide a SSM quilt, packed dirt into small bags to prep for tree planting, visited with members from Jericho and Sunday School kids at Mbaaseny, stopped at 2 schools – 1 thriving and the other just a dream. Talked with a lab tech and doctor at the local dispensary (medical clinic). I would love to share more details and pictures at an upcoming partnership meeting. All are invited: those interested in learning more, willing to provide financial assistance and/or ready to consider traveling to Meru to begin your own relationships. Look for a date/time after Easter. Please contact me if you are interested and want to be included in any e-mail correspondence.

Reformation Concert
Saturday Night Oct 21, 2017, 7 pm
Holy Cross Lutheran Church
W156N8131 Pilgrim Rd
Menomonee Falls, Wi 53051
262 251-2740

Director of Music Ministries; Michael Jacklin

In honor of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, Holy Cross Lutheran Church will celebrate with a concert. Music featured will include the most famous selection “A Mighty Fortress” by Martin Luther. The arrangement commissioned by the Concordia Choir & Sinfonietta of Concordia University Irvine in honor of the 500th Anniversary by composer Dan Forrest will begin the evening. Also featured will be music by John Rutter and other well-known composers along with congregational singing.

A mass choir and orchestra are being formed for this concert. Interested members for the chorus should be of high school age and up. Interested members for the orchestra should have 6 years of musical background on your instrument. All music will be provided by Holy Cross. Also included will be rehearsal cd’s. The choir cd’s will have the entire selection on it with your individual voice brought to the front for learning. The orchestra cd will have the entire piece. This way you can play along and become familiar with the music during the summer at your leisure. Choral music will be ready at the end of May and instrumental parts at the end of June for pickup at Holy Cross or delivered to your church.

Please contact Mike Jacklin through the email address provide below by May 25th. Subject line should be: Reformation Concert. Please include your name, address, phone, email, church (so we can make sure they get the info on the concert) voice: soprano, alto, tenor, bass or instrument you will play. Choral rehearsals will be on Friday evenings beginning on September 15th continuing the 22nd, 29th and in October the 6th, 13th and on the 20th a full run with the orchestra. Orchestra rehearsals will be on Saturday October 7th and 14th from 10am to noon and Friday October 20th at 7 pm. Additional information is available on the Holy Cross website.

Please share this and help spread the word.

Inez Torres Davis, director for justice for Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America since 1997, announced her retirement effective March 15, 2017.

Before joining the Women of the ELCA, Torres Davis worked for nine years in parish ministry and directed a non-profit organization in Chicago. She is a deacon of the ELCA.

“Over the years I have had several titles in this organization, from director for anti-racism to associate executive director,” Torres Davis said. “The constants have been anti-racism and cross-cultural education.”

She also worked against commercial sexual exploitation, managed the organization’s grants program and wrote several Women of the ELCA resources on anti-racism, the environment, HIV/AIDS and sacred spaces.

“My ministry cannot be addressed without speaking of the network of peer educators in “Today’s Dream: Tomorrow’s Reality” (TDTR), anti-racism education,” she said. “TDTR has about 36 women who have remained part of the network since the first TDTR training retreat in April of 1997.”

Hundreds of women have taken the extensive training, she said. Many in the network are used by their synodical women’s organization to train others in racial justice advocacy.

Torres Davis says in retirement she plans “first, to rest.” She looks forward to more walks, fresh air and time with her granddaughters and family.

ABOUT THE JUNE COVER

We have heard the dismay voiced by some readers. We did not intend to offend anyone, and we do not wish an innocently selected image to distract from the content readers have come to appreciate for its faithful challenge in our broken world.

The June issue’s theme is “All anew: ready or not.” The Bible study encourages us to “say goodbye to nice” and live our lives boldly and fearlessly.

As the editors and designers searched for a cover image for this issue, we were looking for something that evoked that “ready or not” spirit of courage in action. We saw this young woman boldly jumping into the water as not being worried about what others think of her; she’s simply ready to make a leap of faith.

As women, we are all too aware of how what we wear or how we look is so often scrutinized or objectified. The goal with this photo was to depict a woman engaged in a joyful leap, empowered by her fearlessness, unafraid of what others’ judgment.

We are currently working to institute design and process changes that will benefit our readers.

In God’s grace,

The Editors

PLANT A SPRING GARDEN NOW

Do you have a spring garden this year? Here’s one that all of us can plant:

First … five rows of peas:
- Preparedness
- Promptness
- Perseverance
- Politeness
- Prayer

Next … three rows of squash:
- Squash gossip
- Squash criticism
- Squash indifference

Then … five rows of lettuce:
- Let us be faithful
- Let us be unselfish
- Let us be loyal
- Let us love one another
- Let us be truthful

No garden is complete without turnips:
- Turn up for “women of the Church events”
- Turn up with a smile
- Turn up with new ideas
- Turn up with real determination

Many of you will remember the “victory gardens” planted during WWII. Now if we, the women in the Greater Milwaukee Synodical Women’s Organization, plant the above suggested garden in our homes and in our Congregational UNITS just think of all the things we could accomplish for our Risen Lord and Savior. Remember, Christ has no hands but our hands & voice.

We’ve been seeing this logo and these dates for many months … and now, it’s almost time to pack our bags and hit the road for an inspirational, fun-filled, learning experience. We’ll meet new people, we’ll learn new things and we’ll come home eager to re-charge our congregational UNITS. What will happen in Minneapolis?

♦ The Gathering will opening on Thursday, July 13th, with an exciting Worship Service from 4:00-5:30 PM. This is a Communion Service and we’ll be using this beautiful Communion Ware. Ali Luhmann, a young glass artist working in Minneapolis has hand-blown fifty (50) chalices, wide cup glasses with a splash of blue color emanating from the bottom up. Because of the glass blowing process, no two chalices are exactly alike. The patens created by Luhmann use a different process, melding fine glass powder in a design similar to the Gathering’s logo, featured on clear glass.

♦ LOUNGE ’70, ’80, ’90 … Thursday, July 13th … 9:30-11:00 PM enjoy a late-evening gathering for women born in the ’70s, ’80s and ’90s. You will share conversation and dessert while listening to our favorite hits from those eras. Jelly shoes, acid-wash jeans and other fluorescent clothing encouraged. Dessert and cash bar $20 (pre-registration required). This is a wonderful opportunity for the younger women.

♦ HEAR INSPIRED SPEAKERS/PREACHERS … such as our own ELCA Presiding Bishop, Elizabeth Eaton; Leymah Gbowee, Nobel Peace Prize winner from Liberia, Africa; Pastor Angela T. Khabeb who was the first African American ELCA Missionary to Namibia, Africa. Pastor Angela now serves Ascension Lutheran Church in Waukesha. There will be many other speakers.

♦ SERVANT EVENTS … On Friday and Saturday afternoon, we’ll meet in the exhibit hall and participate in Servant Events (intentional service and action that will impact the lives of others). Activities range from making feminine hygiene kits to engaging in environmental issues. God’s plan calls us to work together and here you can practice with hundreds of sisters from across the church and globe.

♦ VIEW FILMS … we’ll have the opportunity to view the DREAMCATCHER (a documentary about a former Chicago prostitute who runs a charitable organization that helps women and teenage girls leave the sex industry). We’ll also see BEAUTY OF THEIR DREAMS which documents what faith groups are doing to support girls’ education globally.

♦ VONDA DREES, artist in residence will respond through her art to the words of the preachers and speakers and to other happenings at the Gathering. Read more about Vonda in the March 2017 Gather Magazine … you will be “awed” by her talent.

♦ IN-KIND GIFTS may be brought to the “In-Kind Gifts” area in the exhibit hall during the Gathering where they will be sorted, counted and packed. Needed are; Quilt Kits … fill a gallon-size sealable plastic bag with twelve 21-inch squares of cotton fabric … one spool of Coats & Clark Dual Duty thread to match fabric … one piece of cotton fabric for backing: 2½ yards of 60" fabric or 5 yards of 35"-45" fabric. Clothing … socks and underwear are needed in every size and color. Also needed are white T-shirts for women, children, teens and men. Days for Girls Kits, Hygiene Items (if you want directions for either of these kits, please contact Betty Warber at betty@warber.net or call at 262-886-8918. Probably the easiest In-Kind Gift is Gift Cards … Gift cards (minimum value $10) may be purchased from the following national retailers: Target, Walmart, T.J. Maxx, Marshalls, Home Depot, Ace Hardware and Lowe’s. Visa gift cards are also welcome.

♦ Greater Milwaukee Synod Tee-Shirts … several weeks ago many of you ordered a coral colored tee-shirt with “Greater Milwaukee Synod” printed, along with the “All Anew” logo. Those shirts will arrive around the middle of June and someone will deliver the shirts to each congregation and then you can pick yours up.

As we continue to prepare and anticipate the Tenth Triennial Gathering in July let each of us be vigilant in our prayers for safe travel and an experience that will touch our hearts, souls and minds so that we return to our local UNITS inspired and excited “As a community of women, created in the image of God, called to discipleship in Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to grow in faith, affirm our gifts, support one another in our callings, engage in ministry and action, and promote healing and wholeness in the church, the society and the world.”

PASTOR KATHY J
JACOBSON
PEACE BETHLEHEM IN
COBB AND CRYSTAL ROCK
IN FENNIMORE, WI

Weekend Worship & Bible Study Leader
Kathy has worked in various forms of ministry over the past 20 years, from youth and Christian education coordinator, to campus ministry, rural parish ministry to hospice chaplain. Her true passion is writing.
She has published 4 books in the Noted! “Faithful Fiction” series. She has a husband and 3 “twenty-something” children

Theme; Peace, more than meets the eye
We have all gone through difficult times. Why? We ask God. We just want someone to make sense of what is happening in our lives, our world. We don’t always get the answers. Maybe we need to be released from having all the answers. It’s when we’re released that we are able to see there may be more going on here than we realize. More than meets the eye.

ROMANS 8:28
“And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.
